

God's Gifts

God's gifts and His call are irrevocable. Romans 11, 29.

What a wonderful verse! There is nothing equal to the encouragement which comes directly from the Word of God. None of us can tell that we do not have any gifts. In some way or other we have worked for the Kingdom of God with what we could do. Somewhere down the line, the demands of this world, pressures from workplace, home responsibilities have choked that early fire for the Lord. At times we sit back and think did I do that, did God use me? We may even conclude well that was then, when I was freshly anointed. But now I am lost and God could not possibly use me now. If that's what you are thinking look up and read the verse again. Yes God does not take back what He has given you.

May be it lies buried and forgotten but it is there inside. Our God is a God who watches over a smoldering wick (Isaiah 42, 3) and when there is a strong wind, He cups His hand around the dim wick so that the fire would not go out. What a gracious God we have. Never believe the deceiver's lie that your anointing, the gifts, the Call is all over and gone. No No God never takes back what He has measured for us. He is always faithful on His part of the deal even when we were not. (I Timothy 2, 13). So let us get back to Him, He will revive us and when we believe we will see greater things than this, greater than what we have done in the past. He who has called us is faithful and He will do it. Let us trust Jesus to keep us safe in His will. As Elisha prayed may our Lord pour a double portion of anointing on us.

Dear Jesus

Sorry Lord, we have forgotten your purpose in our lives, forgive us and revive us, so that which you have sown in our lives may bear fruit bringing many sons to glory. Open up the heavens and pour out your anointing, so that we walk with you on the waves and let our hearts be on fire for you. In Jesus name Amen
