

O death where is thy victory?

It is time we contemplate on death. I would suggest that you give a full reading of Ecclesiastes in the Bible. You will know the temporariness of life and the things which will last. Jesus died on the cross, conquering death and rose again with the assurance of eternal life to all those who would believe in Him. One of the worst fears faced by man is the fear of death. Read with me, Hebrews chapter 2, verses 14, 15,

" Since the children have flesh and blood, Jesus too shared in their humanity so that by His death He might destroy him who holds the power of death that is the devil and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

Let me explain, Jesus is like the fire proof vest. We walk through fire but when we have Jesus (how to have Him just Believe, man believe He died for you and your sins are forgiven when you confess) he protects us and takes us safely to the eternal shore. Only be sure you believe Jesus alone is the way to that eternal life. Please believe this ONLY JESUS. If only you believe this you can laugh into the face of death.

When my daddy was to be taken for a heart bypass so many people came and prayed and almost everyone quoted Psalm 91, 16. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation. We believed in this and never even thought daddy could die. Sunday me and mummy went to Church and when we returned we were badly searched for, that moment I knew something was really bad. Doctors were running. I caught hold of one doctor and asked him, " Tell me is my daddy alive "He said we are trying, again I said 'tell me' and he simply nodded, we were in the chief doctor's room. By then akka had come. We three knelt and prayed, I said, Lord you will never lie and when you said I will give him long life, you will so now resurrect my daddy, This was my prayer. I still remember so clearly exactly when the clock struck 12, I heard a very clear voice, the Lord saying, " I have given your Daddy the longest life possible..." I felt as though I was struck by a hammer.

I opened my eyes turned around, and told my athan to inform everyone and I personally went and asked the ambulance to take my daddy to Kumbakonam. Four years will be completed on July 30. Of course I had my struggles But I tell you today I am so joyful and happy for I know where my father is and one day I WILL meet him. This is the Hope we have in Christ Jesus. Death is conquered. Hallelujah. Except one or two in this list, you all know me personally and you have seen me laughing and singing, Yeah yet again I will shout aloud and sing the faithfulness of my Heavenly Father. Till today I have not lacked anything and I am so grateful that the Lord is using me to comfort the fatherless.

Think about your life and think about your death. Where will you be found when the air in your body stops? You don't have to walk on a pilgrimage just believe Jesus took your place on the cross for your sins and He has earned your salvation through His blood and He only wants you to believe that He is enough. Just BELIEVE with all your heart and you will be saved. Romans 10, 9-10.

Dear Jesus thank you for conquering death and giving us the gift of eternal life with you in Heaven, Help us to believe in your resurrection and life so that we may live now and forever with you. Amen.
